
Membership of the Wimborne Drama Club is invited: the Subscription is half a guinea per annum, and this includes admission to the performance for Club Members only, when refreshments are provided by members of the Social Committee.

Please write to the Hon. Secretary—Miss E. R. King, “Somersby,” Walford, Wimborne.

Once again the Club is indebted to and wishes to thank Messrs. Tilsed and Son, of High Street, Wimborne, for the provision of Box Office facilities.

WIMBORNE DRAMA CLUB

(AMATEUR)

presents

“The Holly and The Ivy”

A PLAY IN THREE ACTS

By WYNYARD BROWNE

DECEMBER

1953

Dec. 1953
(D. YOUNG)

WIMBORNE DRAMA CLUB

President: G. H. WATSON, Esq.

Chairman: LEONARD H. MOTTRAM, Esq.

Hon. Secretary: MISS E. R. KING

Hon. Treasurer: A. J. BROOMAN, Esq.

"Somersby"

Walford, Wimborne

Park Lane

Wimborne

Officers for the Present Production:

Producer—LEONARD H. MOTTRAM

Stage Managers—DAPHNE YOUNG AND TERTIA LLEWELLYN

Prompt—PAM MOTTRAM

Stage Lighting—REGINALD L. WILKINSON

Interval Music and Recordings—CHARLES O. CHALEEL

Chief Steward—LESLIE YOUNG

Business and General Manager—GEOFFREY R. C. HAWKINS

Setting by DAPHNE AND LESLIE YOUNG, TERTIA LLEWELLYN AND FREDERICK WORTH

Properties kindly loaned by MR. AND MRS. J. W. ANDERSON, MR. D. GOULD
AND MEMBERS OF THE CLUB

"THE HOLLY AND THE IVY"

By Wynyard Browne

(By arrangement with Messrs. Evans Bros., Ltd.)

The Characters in the Play

in the order of their appearance:

Jenny, Martin's elder daughter	Pat Chick
David Paterson	Norman Rowe
The Rev. Martin Gregory	Paddy Brooman
Mick, his son	Hugh Trenchard
Aunt Lydia, his sister-in-law	Katherine Purchas
Aunt Bridget, his sister	Hazell Drewett
Richard Wyndham, cousin of his late wife	Harold Midmore
Margaret, his younger daughter	Thelma Dryden

The Play takes place in the living room of a Vicarage in Norfolk.

Synopsis of Scenes:

ACT I. Christmas Eve

(Interval of 10 minutes)

ACT II. After dinner the same evening.

(The lights are dimmed during this act to denote the passage of 2 hours)
(Interval of 10 minutes)

ACT III. Christmas Morning.