

Wimborne Drama Club

---

Newcomers in Latest Production

Four "newcomers" are making their bow with Wimborne Drama Club this week-end in Kenneth Horne's popular stage and film success, "Love in a Mist."

Two of them—Michael Aiken, a Wimborne Grammar School boy, and Peggy Hastings, a receptionist, are playing the "newly-weds," Nigel and Pat; and the third, Hilary Boneham, a teacher at Wimborne County Modern School, will appear as near-erring secretary, Rose.

The fourth, Wauchope George, is well known in local dramatic circles and has previously stage-managed for the Wimborne Club. This time he will combine stage-management with his first acting appearance with the Club—as the mute Mr. Evans.

Two of the Club's most reliable and experienced players, Paddy Brooman and Daphne Young, complete the team as Howard and the garrulous Mrs. Evans.