Wimborne Drama Club has had a recent success in the Dorset County Drama Festival, with Charles Mander's one act play 'Cup Final'. The play is set in the dressing room of a converted hall during an amateur festival. Wimborne Drama Club's cast of seven took the play to The Digby Hall, Sherborne on Thursday 9th March to compete with twenty other clubs from all over Dorset and returned with a Certificate of Merit awarded to only seven of the Clubs competing for scoring 75 marks or more and new member Hermann Swoboda was chosen by the adjudicator to receive the Janet Wilson Trophy for his excellent performance. The play was produced by Club Chairman, David Green.
