FERNDOWN FESTIVAL OF ACTING AND DRAMA

THE ADJUDICATOR

PETER ENGLISH

PETER ENGLISH has been a full member of the Guild of Drama Adjudicators for over ten years. He has worked in the field of amateur drama for most of his life as actor, director and author, with several published plays to his name, two of which have won national awards. He recently wrote and directed a highly successful musical, based on "Pilgrim's Progress", for churches in Bristol and Bath, and another commissioned musical was performed in Bristol in the Autumn of last year. Last Summer, an open-air Pageant, commissioned by his local Town Council was written and directed by him and performed to appreciative audiences by a cast of over 100 in front of Devizes Castle.

He lives in Devizes and is a Drama Advisor for the Diocese of Salisbury, as well as contributing to a programme of Missions in the Diocese of Bath and Wells and the Canterbury Diocese. He has toured widely, both in this country and abroad, with groups of young people, writing original material for them which he publishes himself. In 1986 he took early retirement from a senior teaching post, since when he has been busily engaged in freelance work in running workshops on many aspects of drama, adjudicating at numerous Festivals, and in directing and writing - both plays and poetry - as well as being involved at his local Wharf Theatre in both directing and acting.
