WIMBORNE DRAMA CLUB

Wimborne Drama Club staged its first play in the town in 1928 and, in spite of some ups and downs has continued to present plays in the neighbourhood since then.

We are now, at last, using our own premises for meetings and rehearsals. A chip from Dr. Beeching's axe, the Booking Hall & Parcels Office at the old Railway Station. This has helped us in preparing this play and, small as it is, we all feel rather pleased and perhaps proud to have 'our own place'.

The play you will see tonight is our second production by Jean Anouilh, and we hope you will find it entertaining. The title is certainly a suitable follow-up to our last play 'Champagne for Breakfast'!

Our choice of plays would be even wider if we had a larger membership. The cast of 12 in the present play is larger than we can usually manage with our present acting membership, bearing in mind that there are usually the same number of people working just as hard, or harder, behind the scenes. We welcome new faces and new ideas. Why not join us. Come to our next meeting at the Station on the last Thursday of each month.
