WIMBORNE DRAMA CLUB

It is always difficult when choosing a play for production to predict its suitability so far as the audience is concerned. Our endeavour is to maintain variety although it is often tempting to follow one successful play with another of the same type.

However, we feel sure you will all be familiar with the writings of this particular author whose 'Doctor' stories have been popular for many years in the cinema, and latterly on television.

Needless to say each new production is fraught with problems, in this instance not the least of which was the tracking down of a suitable character to portray 'Charlie'. Most of the cast in 'Doctor in the House' may well be familiar to you and we hope that you will enjoy watching this play as much as we have enjoyed producing it.

The Matron, played by Rosemary Blake, is a newcomer, as is Minna Harvey who has the difficult task of properties.

The club always welcomes new members, so whatever your particular bent or interest the House Manager at the door will be only too pleased to furnish you with the necessary information.
