WIMBORNE DRAMA CLUB

Wimborne Drama Club staged its first play in the town in 1928 in the local Womens Institute Hall, and despite many ups and downs, has continued to present plays in the town and neighbourhood since then.

After leaving Church House in 1968 for the large, well equipped stage of Wimborne Modern School, we return to Church House for the presentation of this old melodrama, and hope the more intimate atmosphere will add to your enjoyment. We have endeavoured to present the play in the style of the period and hope that you will enter into the spirit of the presentation - hiss at the dastardly villain - weep with the innocent, wronged heroine.

Our choice of plays would be even wider if we had a larger membership. New faces and new ideas are always welcome. Why not join us ? Come to our next meeting at the Grammar School Annexe (off East Borough) at 8 p.m., on the last Thursday of every month.

... For the odd weekend - to clear that unwanted rubbish.
