JAMES RUEGG Jim has been a member of the Club since 1982. This is his third stage appearance, the last one being Patrick Simmonds in 'A Murder is Announced'.

PAM FELTHAM Pam is glad to be taking another part with the Club, she was prompt for the last production and made her debut as Ursula in 'There Goes The Bride'.

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Although we usually do a thriller or dramatic play at this time of year, we have reversed the tradition and put on this Alan Melville comedy. I hope it will counteract some of the gloom and doom which we seem to hear so often lately.

With a larger cast than usual, even with a few doubling we have been able to give some major parts to newcomers and younger members, a policy which we like to follow if we can.

Relax and enjoy yourselves for an hour or two in Monte Carlo!

Synopsis of scenes.

ACT 1

- Scene 1 The Principal's Study.
Scene 2 The terrace of the Hotel Splendide, Monte Carlo. Four weeks later. Morning.
Scene 3 The same, a week later. 10pm.

ACT 11

- Scene 1 The same, a few hours later.
Scene 2 The same, the following morning.

Time - The Present.

There will be an interval of 20 minutes between Act 1 and Act 11, during which refreshments will be served in the foyer.
