CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Welcome to Wimborne Drama Club's autumn 1991 production. I must admit it seems like no time at all since April when we were presenting "Move Over Mrs Markham".

This "Farndale Avenue" production really breaks the mould for us and is verging on the art of course acting as well as keeping a large backstage crew fully occupied! Do excuse the actors if they seem a little breathless but some of the costume changes have to be very quick. I bet you did not expect Christmas to come this soon!

Plans for next year's productions are still in the making but the dates of the spring production will be 2,3,4 April 1992.

We are always looking to recruit new members and I can only assume that men are a very shy breed. New male members are very hard to come by. Should anyone wish to push their inhibitions and other commitments to one side we would love to see you at our meetings - the last Thursday of each month at the Allendale Centre. Do come and see what we are up to.

Finally, may I take this opportunity to thank you once again for your support and wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. See you in the spring!

Carolyn Woodward

JOE BROOKS (DIRECTOR)

Any resemblance in this production to any Townswomens Guild, living or dead, is purely coincidental (I have to start with that otherwise they might not let us borrow their bell again!). The cast, and all the people backstage, have worked very hard on this play, which was my second choice, the first being impossible because of a total lack of available young men - not an uncommon situation in amateur drama. Finally, my special thanks to Chrissie Wathen for not singing!

I hope you all enjoy your evening.

OTHER PARTS PLAYED BY MEMBERS OF THE CAST

DIRECTED BY JOE BROOKS

THE CAST

MARGARET POPE. In the summer production of "Edward", Margaret played "Old Nell", a rather pathetic character, whose boyfriend had committed suicide years before because he could not live without her. Thelma is a different kettle of fish altogether - suicide might be contemplated by some of the members of the F.A.H.E.T.G.D.S. due to her high and mighty manner but love most certainly would have nothing to do with it!

JOYCE EIDMANS has at last succeeded in attaining one of her ambitions - being chosen for a part she plays in real life! But please, Townswomen everywhere - she is only joking! And she used to think David McGillivray was such a nice boy!

JAN STEVENSON'S last appearance with the Club was in last year's autumn production, "Generation Trap" by local author Stanley Lodge. Her part in that play was very active, rushing in and out all the time. This part is the exact opposite as you will see, but great fun.

HOWARD LOVEJOY has been a member of the Club since 1989. As Walter Pangbourne in "Move Over Mrs Markham" he had to manage to be in and out of bed at the right time. In this play, he hopes he manages to be in the right costume at the right time - he has eight changes!

BARBARA HURST has spent the last five and a half years with the Club trying to get it right. Now she has to get it wrong. She hopes she manages it alright. Or should it be "all wrong"?
