TEN TIMES TABLE

A Comedy

by

ALAN AYCKBOURN

THURSDAY 24th, FRIDAY 25th & SATURDAY 26th

FEBRUARY 1983

CURTAIN UP - 7.45pm.

PETER BROOKS has been a member of the club for four years this is his third role, and his favourite despite constant nagging by the producer, previous plays being "Dr. Morelle" and "Harlequinade". He lives in Wimborne and works for a firm of accountants in Bournemouth.

JAMES RUEGG has lived at Holt since 1965 and was educated at Queen Elizabeth's School, Wimborne. On leaving he served a three year apprenticeship with Stewart's Nurseries and during that time attended Dorset College of Agriculture. He now works for Poole Borough Council, keeping Britain beautiful! He joined Wimborne Drama Club last October and this is his first stage performance.

MIKE ANDREWS is our Wimborne Town Crier. He was Grumpy at the age of nine, that is to say in a school production of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs". He joined Colwall Drama Club in Hertfordshire in 1957, and Nelson Players, Malvern, shortly afterwards. On moving to Bournemouth in 1960 joined St. Peter's Players and appeared in a number of their productions, specializing in pantomime. This will be his first and last play with Wimborne Drama Club as he is leaving the district to take a pub in Wiltshire.

MICHELE ANDREWS is at the Dorset Institute of Higher Education at Wallisdown doing a degree in catering. She has taken part in school productions of "Toad of Toad Hall" as Rat and "A Midsummer Night's Dream" as Peter Quince. She is another new face with Wimborne Drama Club having joined last December.

THE PRODUCER

JOYCE EIDMANS has been mad on drama since an early age - now just mad! She loves all things to do with amateur stage including Wimborne Drama Club and is glad they put up with her. She looks forward to acting until she's 100!

THE CAST

SPENCER HARE has been a member of Wimborne Drama Club since 1976. Originally from South Wales, he has lived in Wimborne since he was ten years old, and now regards Wimborne as his natural home. He has taken parts in several plays, among them "Girl in my soup", "The Amorous Prawn", "Shock" and "Darling Mr. London". He admits his preference is for comedies. His other interests are playing golf and badminton and he is a member of the drama club folk group "Romany".

CHRISTINA (TINA) BARNES began her acting career at the age of eleven when she played Katisha in the school production of "The Mikado", since then she has played Aunt Ella in "Oklahoma" and had parts in productions with St. Hubert's Players, Corfe Mullen, which disbanded about six years ago. She joined Wimborne Drama Club last August and this is her first part with us. She would like to thank her husband for being a good baby sitter for their three month old son in order that she could attend rehearsals.

DAVID GREEN Joined The Club in 1976, and this is his ninth role with us. As well as taking part in the majority of twice yearly, full length plays David has also co-produced a play and a drama festival entry at Canford School, and last summer was a member of the cast in The Club's entry of "The Cagedbirds" in the Ferndown Drama Festival. David is a keen theatregoer and collector of theatre memorabilia. He says that his greatest moment was having afternoon tea with Dame Anna Neagle when she was appearing in Bournemouth some years ago.

MARGARET POPE Joined The Club last year, and was pitched in at the deep end with the part of Miss Mockeridge in "Dangerous Corner". She enjoys swimming and keeping fit with the Women's League of Health and Beauty.

SUSAN MELHUIS Was educated at Queen Elizabeth's School, Wimborne and is now employed by Hamworthy Engineering. This is her first role with Wimborne Drama Club, her first appearance on stage being as Miss Muffet's spider when she was in the Brownies! She joined The Club last December.
