CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

I hope you will enjoy your evening "by the lake". You will not have to guess whodunnit but when you know Colin better you may hope that they get away with it! John Fry and Chrissie Wathen (Colin and his wife Iris) are newcomers to the Club and "Nurse" is also played by a newcomer, Isabel Falconer. We welcome them to the Club along with Richard Johns who, although he only joined the Club last November is already thought of as an "old hand".

On July 4th we shall be presenting a "Dorset Evening" in the grounds of Deans Court and will be happy to see you. Thanks to Sir Michael and Lady Hanham for making this available and to Hugh Brasnett for organising the programme which will be in aid of charity.

Forthcoming Events

One Act Festival at St. Leonards Theatre, 6th - 10th May.
Wimborne's entry is "Three Knaves of Normandy".

Dorset Evening 4th July. (May possibly now be at the Allendale Centre - further details later)

Autumn Production 23rd, 24th, 25th October. Play yet to be decided.

ISABEL FALCONER is a newcomer to Wimborne Drama Club. She has mostly been concerned with amateur dramatics in Australia, where she lived for seven years before finally settling in Wimborne.
